HYMN V.

JUSTICE.

I.

O Let not fraud 'gainſt me prevail,
My God, my Chriſt avow'd;
Which weigh'ſt the mountains in thy ſcale,
And ballanceſt the cloud.

II.

And ſtill peculiar on my ſide,
Keep me from rigour free;
Make me forgive, in manly pride,
All that exact on me.

III.

Pay my demander more than due,
With meaſure heap'd and preſs'd;
And rather welcome than purſue,
My brother when diſtreſs'd.

IV.

O give me ſenſe and grace to know
Thy will, and check my own;
In heav'n above, in earth below,
The Lord is judge alone.
